

Music Camps @ FSU

June 15-19, 2009

Trumpet Camp

Instructor - Dr. Sheryl Linch-Parker

The Trumpet Camp will provide specialized training on trumpet for students in 7th through 10th grades. The daily schedule will include trumpet sectionals and technique building classes, sight-reading development, developing a practice routine, and basic trumpet maintenance and care. There will be a daily music theory and rhythm class to enhance basic skills. On the final day trumpet students will have an opportunity to perform as a group or individual for the general public.

Dr. Sheryl Linch-Parker currently serves as Associate Professor of Music (Trumpet and Music Education) at Fayetteville State University. Prior to her appointment at FSU, she taught as a band director for the Hazelwood Public Schools (St. Louis, MO.) where she directed five elementary bands, Chadron State College (Music Education Specialist/Trumpet), and the Callaway School District in Nebraska as K-12 Band Director. Dr. Linch-Parker has maintained an active private studio for trumpet and performs with the Fayetteville Jazz Orchestra and Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra since 2003 as a section and principal player. Most recently she presented clinics and performances with her trumpet/percussion duo, Double Take at Tarleton State University in Stephenville, Texas and UNC-Pembroke with the recent release of their 2nd CD, "Atmospheres".

Dr. Linch-Parker has a B.A. in Music Education from The University of Nebraska at Kearney and a Master of Music in trumpet performance from The University of Arizona in Tucson. Dr. Linch-Parker holds a Doctorate in Music Education (D.M.E.) from the University of Northern Colorado at Greeley. She is also a Jupiter Performing Artist endorser.
